14) The Appellant who was the Plaintiff in the lower Court, that is the late Mr. Rachia Setty, filed a suit for dissolution of partnership and for accounts and for recovery of Rs. 25,000/- which he estimated as his

as his share of the capital and profits.

15) The Defendants denied the partnership and urged that the Plaintiff was not entitled to the relief prayed for. The partnership referred to by the Plaintiff has a long history. It commenced in 1887 between the Plaintiff and Yernul Narasimhia and the latter's brother Yernul Naranaiya under the name of C.Rachia Setty & Co.,

16) The said Partnership continued till 1893 when Y.Naranaiya retired from it. The Plaintiff and Yernul Narasimhia who acted for himself and on behalf of his joint family, continued the business thereafter as partners. The said Narasimhia died in 1907. The Plaintiff's contention is that the Defendants, who are the sons of Yernul Narasimhia, continued the partnership after his death. The Defendants while admitting that they carried on the business denied that Plaintiff has any interest in the same. It is prectically conceded in the Judgment of the lower Court that the Plaintiff had financed the concern and that the Partnership business continued till the death of Narasimhaiya. But he holds that there is no reliable evidence showing that the partnership between the parties continued after the death of Narasimhia. The said Narasimhia died on 25-10-1907 and his account was changed to the name of his sons i.e., Defendants on 26-10-1907. The accounts of the business continued as before till 1909 according to the accounts produced in Court. The business till then was admittedly managed by K.Ramappa

17) The Defendants assumed management of the business in 1909 and they seem to have kept back the accounts. This leads to the presumption that if produced they would support the Plaintiff's case. Further some letters are also written to the Plaintiff by the Defendants referring to partnership matters. The accounts of some of the creditors of the partnership show that till 1913, the Plaintiff and the 1st Defendant carried on transactions together for the business. The Defendants do not plead that the partnership terminated in 1909 or in 1913. As against these facts there are the facts noticed by the District Judge.

18) On the whole I think the Appellant has a fairly strong case.

Sir,

Enquiry. RJ 14/10/33

I have the honour to forward herewith, in original, the petition from Messrs. Chittoor Aswathiya Setty and other heirs of the late Chittor Rachia Chetti of Chickballapur Town praying for the addition of Government as the legal representative of Mr.Chitoor Rachiya Setty (since deceased) under the circumstances mentioned in the petition. Mr. Rachiya Setty was a very philanthrophic man and spent over Rs. 50,000/- for charitable purposes during his life time.

A few days prior to his death it was suggested to him through his friends that he might kindly donate a Maternity Hospital and the deceased had asked for a little time to collect some funds due to him. But as he became dangerously ill he has devised, under his last will and testament dated 30-8-33 (and regd.on 2-9-33) his interest in the three cases in favour of Government to be utilized for the purposes of a Maternity Hospital.

Since he has donated the entire interests amounting to Rs 30,000/- (Thirty Thousand) in favour of Government for a charitable purpose I request you to be so good as to authorise (1) the Government Advocate to represent Government in the Appeal No.R.A.43/28-29 before the High Court (2) The Public Prosecutor- Bangalore Division in O.S.No.10/19-20 before the District Court and permit me to engage a counsel in the Chickballapur Munsiff's Court to represent Government in O.S.No.381 of 14-15 of that Court.

Residents of Chickaballapur Town.

Most Respected Sir,

1. C. Rachiah Setty was big, influential and Wealthy merchant at Chickaballapur. By his own exertions, he built up a lucrative business at various centres in Southern India and at Bombay. He also constructed a Choultry at Viduraswatta, in the Goribidnur Taluk and added considerably to it from time to time. In his Will registered on 30th August 1933, he has created a trust for its management and left an additional sum of Rs. 2000/- for the purpose to be handed over the trust. He has directed his Life Assurance Policy, payable after death, in the Bombay Oriental Life Insurance Company Limited, as an endowment for the Viduraswatta Trust Fund.

2. For the Anjaneyaswamy Temple at Chickaballapur, he spent large sums exceeding Rs. 2000/- during his life time and at his death left another sum of Rs. 2000/- for its completion. The installation ceremony has to take place in the coming month of Magha.

3. He has also directed the income from certain properties left for the maintenance of one Gowramma to be utilised for the upkeep of the Kanyaka-

Parameswari Temple at Chickaballapur after her death.

4. For certain Sevas in his name of the Kodandaramanaswami Temple at Chickaballapur, 500/- rupees out of his shares in the Co-operative Society Limited have been left, the interest thereof to be used, the other 200/- rupees being given to Lakshminarasappa of the Sri Anandakrishna Vaidya Sala at Chickaballapur.

5. The Bangalore Chickaballapur Light Railway Company shares valued at Rs. 500/- are given for the encouragement of Vaisya Students in the Sanscrit Patasala established by the Vaisya Mandali.

6. Besides the above charities which exceed Rs. 50,000/- he has left the following to the Government of Mysore:-

(i) The subjectmatter of O. S. No: 15 of 19-20 on the file of the District Judge, Bangalore, now in appeal before the High Court of Mysore in R. A. No: 43 of 28-29.

(ii) The subjectmatter of O. S. No: 10 of 14-15 on the file of the District Judge, Bangalore.

(iii) The subjectmatter of O. S. No: 381/13-14 on the file of the Munsiff of Chickaballapur.

In the registered Will dated 30th August 1933, he prays the Government of Mysore to continue the proceedings in these several suits, utilising the net realisations thereof for building an Hospital for Maternity and Child Welfare at Chickaballapur, a sore need of that place. An account of the exact present position of these cases, together with their chances of success and the possible sources of realisation in the event of a successful termination of these suits is given in the appendix. If these cases should succeed and amounts realised all the costs of these proceedings may be given to Mr. S. Srikantaya, our advocate for over 15 years, deducting the expenses incurred by the Government therefrom.

7. In order to ensure a satisfactory working of these suits, we pray the Government of Mysore may be pleased to consent to be brought on record as parties along with us (so that there will be no difficulty whatever in the case of an adverse decision) and proceed with these cases.

8. We therefore pray the Government of Mysore may be pleased to accede to our prayer.

1. C. S. 15 of 19-20.
R. A. 43 of 28-29.

Suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts in which the plaintiff C. Rachiah Setty claims Rs. 25,000/- and interest etc. The suit was dismissed on the grounds of limitation and the contention in the appeal that this decision was wrong because on the death of Yernool Narashimiah, father of defendants 1 and 2, there was technically a new partnership, even if it be held that the defendants were not members of a Joint Hindu Trading Family.

2. O. S. 10 of 14-15.

A suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts. C. Rachiah Setty was the defendant with a half share. A preliminary decree has been passed and the Commissioner Mr. Mittor Srinivasa Rao is going through the accounts, to find out the collections and realisations made by the parties respectively, and the amounts due from the one to the other. The defendant's share is expected to reach about Rs. 10,000/-.

3. O. S. 381 of 13-14.

A suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts in the Chickaballapur Munsiff's court and a preliminary decree has been passed. C. Rachiah Setty was the defendant. His share expected to be about Rs. 1500/-. The case is for arguments re (1) damages suffered by the plaintiff on account of defendant's interruption to the working of the Sugar Cane Mills, (ii) the amcunt which the plaintiff has to pay the defendant's from the profits which he had realised under his management, and (iii) costs etc.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. P.3976/Law. 45-33-7, dated the 20th February 1934 re: Regular Appeal No. 43 of 1928-29 on the file of the High Court of Mysore, (C. Rachaiya Setty -VS- Venkatarayappa and others) I have the honor to enclose herewith a copy of the letter written to me by Mr. Srikantiah, with whom I had a discussion, more than once, about the cases in which the late Mr. Rachiah Setty was concerned. One case is on the file of the Munsiff of Chickballapur and the other on the file of the District Judge, Bangalore. Mr. Srikantiah has no papers connected with these cases and therefore he is not in a position to say anything definite about them. As I have already mentioned, Mr. Rachia Setty's appeal pending before the High Court is a fairly arguable one and as it involves a heavy amount I think the endowments may be accepted.

2. The case before the High Court stands posted to the 7th June 1934 for hearing.

"Dear Mr. Nageswara Iyer,

"With reference to your letter Re: the late Mr.C.Rachiah Setty's affairs I am sorry to say that the original papers - connected with O.S.10/14-15 on the file of the District Judge, Bangalore, and O.S.381/13-14 on the file of the Munsiff of - Chickballapur are not with me. In O.S.10/14-15 accounts are being looked into by the Commissioner to find out how much has been collected by either party in order to arrive at the amounts payable from one to the other. In the Chickballapur case the question is one of damages for loss in relation to a Sugar Cane Crushing Mill and it is posted for arguments to consider what loss the Plaintiff in that case has sustained and to what extent the defendant Mr. Rachiah Setty should be held liable. The defendants on the other hand appear to contend that they are entitled to moneys from the Plaintiff from his management on accounts being taken. It is difficult to say whether and how far the late Mr. Rachiah Setty's estate would benefit from - either of these proceedings. The late Mr. Rachiah Setty no doubt was expecting to succeed in these cases. In O.S.10/14-15 itself he was expecting to get over Rs.10,000/- including - interest. But it is not now possible for me to say under the circumstances how far those expectations will be realised. As regards the High Court appeal I have already given you a Printed copy of the records and discussed the matters with you in person."

Most Respected Sir,

1. C. Rachiah Setty was big, influential and Wealthy merchant at Chickaballapur. By his own exertions, he built up a lucrative business at various centres in Southern India and at Bombay. He also constructed a Choultry at Viduraswatta, in the Goribidnur Taluk and added considerably to it from time to time. In his will registered on 30th August 1933, he has created a trust for its management and left an additional sum of Rs.2000/- for the purpose to be handed over the trust. He has directed his Life Assurance Policy, payable after death, in the Bombay Oriental Life Insurance Company Limited, as an endowment for the Viduraswatta Trust Fund.

2. For the Anjaneyaswamy Temple at Chichaballapur, he spent large sums exceeding Rs.2000/- during his life time and at his death left another sum of Rs.2000/- for its completion. The installation ceremony has to take place in the coming month of Magha.

3. He has also directed the income from certain properties left for the Maintenance of one Gowramma to be utilised for the upkeep of the Kanyaka-Parameswari Temple at Chickaballapur after her death.

4. For certain Sevas in his name of the Kodandaramana-swami Temple at Chickaballapur, 300/- rupees out of his shares in the Co-operative Society Limited have been left, the interest thereof to be used, the other 200/- rupees being given to Lakshminarasappa of the Sri Anandakrishna Vaidya Sala at Chickaballapur.

5. The Bangalore Chickaballapur Light Railway Company shares valued at 500/- rupees are given for the encouragement of Vaisya Students in the Sanscrit Patasala established ~~by the Vaisya Students in the Sanscrit Patasala established~~ by the Vaisya Mandali.

6. Besides the above charities which exceed Rs 30,000/- he has left the following to the Government of Mysore:-

(i) The subject matter of O. S. No: 15 of 19-20 on the file of the District Judge, Bangalore, now in appeal before the High Court of Mysore in R. A. No: 43 of 28-29.

(ii) The subjectmatter of O. S. No: 10 of 14-15 on the file of the District Judge, Bangalore.

(iii) The subjectmatter of O. S. No: 381/13-14 on the file of the Munsiff of Chickaballapur.

In the registered Will dated 30th August 1933, he prays the Government of Mysore to continue the Proceedings in these several suits, utilising the net realisations thereof for building an Hospital for Maternity and Child Welfare at Chickaballapur, a sore need of that place. An accout of the exact present position of these cases, together with their chances of success and the possible sources of realisation in the event of a successful termination of these suits is given in the appendix. If these cases should succeed and amouts realised all the costs of these proceedings may be given to Mr. S. Srikantaya, our advocate for over 15 years, deducting the expenses incurred by the Government therefrom.

7. In order to ensure a satisfactory working of these suits, we pray the Government of Mysore may be pleased to consent to be brought on record as parties along with us (so that there will be no difficulty whatever in the case of an adverse decision) and proceed with these cases.

8. We therefore pray the Government of Mysore may be pleased to accede to our prayer.

R. A. 43 of 28-29.

Suit for dissolution of partnership and account in which the plaintiff C. Rachiah Setty claims Rs 25,000/- and interest etc.

The suit was dismissed on the grounds of limitation and the contention in the appeal that this decision was wrong because on the death of Yernool Narasimiah, father of defendants 1 and 2, there was technically a new partnership, even if it be held that the defendants were not members of a Joint Hindu Trading Family.

2. O. S. 10 of 14-15.

A suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts. C. Rachiah Setty was the defendant with a half share. A preliminary decree has been passed and the Commissioner Mr. Nittoor Srinivasa Rao is going through the accounts, to find out the collections and realisations made by the parties respectively, and the amounts due from the one to the other. The defendant's share is expected to reach about Rs 10,000/-

3. O. S. 381 of 13-14.

A suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts in the Chickaballapur Munsiff's court and a preliminary decree has been passed. C. Rachiah Setty was the defendant. His share expected to be about Rs 1500/-. The case is for arguments re (i) damages suffered by the plaintiff on account of defendant's interruption to the working of the Sugar Cane Mills, (ii) the amount which the plaintiff has to pay the defendant's from the profits which he had realised under his management, and (iii) costs etc.

Order No. P 230—33

Dated, Bangalore, 10th July 1934.

The late Mr.C. Rachaiya Setty of Chickballapur has by his will dated 30th August 1933, bequeathed in favour of the Government the money that may become due to him in the marginally noted cases, for the purpose of constructing a Maternity Hospital at Chikballpur. Except the appeal pending in the High Court, which is said to be a fairly arguable one the chances of success and recovery in the other two cases are reported to be remote. The bequeathal therefore amounts to a devise of the right to conduct certain doubtful cases and to take the money to be realised if successful. Government consider that (on principle) it is objectionable to accept such an endowment The legal heirs of late Mr. Rachia Chetti have to conduct the cases themselves and then handover the realisations for the charitable purpose intended by their father.
